

THE WAR CRY.

AND OFFICIAL GAZETTE OF THE SALVATION ARMY IN CANADA AND NEWFOUNDLAND

Twenty-ninth Year.

BRANWELL BOOTH
Editor

TORONTO, DECEMBER 28, 1912.

DAVID M. REES
Circulation

Price: Five cents.

22,919 ARMY
BANDSMEN IN ALL PARTS OF
THE WORLD.

59,270 LOCAL OFFICERS
ARE LIFTING
UP THE BANNER
IN ALL CLIMES.

Bandsmen's and Local Officers' Number

CITY LIBRARIES

A BANDMASTER'S ADVICE.

To Bandmen Away From Home.
There are several things (says Bandmaster A. W. Punched of Chas. Evans), which should be observed with regard to the week-end, only a few of which can be indicated here:

1. The Bandmen should always go in heart and soul for getting people saved.

2. They should play the very best music, and interest the people in the music.

3. They should make the week-end an enjoyable one to themselves, their fellow-Bandmen, their Band-master, and all with whom they come in contact.

4. They should leave a good name at their billets.

5. They should in all things show themselves to be good, out-and-out behaviorists, and that their supreme end is the salvation of souls.

If these aims are kept in view then the Band-Quitting will be a success, and the Band will get a pleasing invitation for a return visit.

THE TENDER CHORD.

A Song and Its Influence.

A Salvation Army Officer was proceeding from Japan to Australia. When the boat in which he was travelling called at Hong-Kong, he was requested to conduct a service on a British man-of-war which was lying by the harbor.

During the warship, he was surprised to hear the sailors singing very heartily a familiar Army song, the words of which were composed some years ago by Mr. Adjutant Parsons (now of Hawthorn, Australia).

The Officer conducted the service, during which a request was made for one of the sailors to sing a verse of the song.

There shined a radiance laid by day
There shined a radiance laid by day
It streams through heaven's golden gate
And opens wide by prayer.

In darkest night, in darkest night,
And through the desert wild,
I hear Him say, "This is the way,
Walk ye in it, My child."

Before he had finished one of his comrades had dropped his head and was soon heard sobbing. The words had struck a tender chord in his heart, and before the service had terminated he knelt on the deck and gave his heart and life to the Redeemer.

The influence of that song, written by Mr. Parsons when in New Zealand, spread, the seas to China, and who knew but that it might find a Bandman, Songster, and L.

THE PRAYING LEAGUE.

1. Pray for special grace, and strength to be given those who are unwilling to alleviate the needs of the poor, the lonely, and the needy.

2. Pray that special blessing may attend all temporal giving.

3. Pray that Divine blessing may be upon all Yuletide gatherings.

4. Pray that as well as happy social intercourse.

THE GENERAL TO LOCALS.

"A High and Honourable Responsibility."

It is for you to deal with people as you find them. If they show forms of waywardness other than those which marked your early days, do not kick something when you do not look, and are all the more to be pitied, and it is for you to make all the allowances, to show all the patience, and to be uncomplaining, would have if they were your own flesh and blood.

It is a high and honourable responsibility to have placed upon you the care of these Soldiers, who have a right to look into their welfare, to speak to them, to deal with them in order that you may keep them for the Kingdom of God, and for the salvation of the world.

Emphasizing the importance of the Local Officer, recognizing the responsibility which belongs to his office. The General said: "You are not like the ordinary Soldier, you are in and out of the barracks, no matter, like many of the people around you. You would not be worthy to be a Local Officer at all if you do not feel the responsibility for the prosperity of the work God has given you to do."

Dare we meditate upon such utterances and belittle their direct importance to us? No Local Officer can afford to do so.

WORKING UNDER DIFFICULTIES.

How to Be Continually "At Your Best."

No one can accomplish much in life who must have everything "just as it is" in order to do his work. For, with most men and women, the most part of their life has to be spent under circumstances which are not just as they would like to have them. If they do not even attempt to do their best work except under the most favourable circumstances, this will bring the greater part of their life will pass by unimproved. These workers whose output of large volume and high quality supplies them with the atmosphere upon which they work under any and every condition. So it becomes true that the measure of one's efficiency is largely his ability to do good work under disadvantageous circumstances. The man who cannot work under such difficulties is putting an enormous limitation upon his output. His life is not going to be nearly as much as the man's who can marshal his his powers at any time and under any

DAILY HOME READINGS.

SUN, Dec. 28.—Mark ix: 2-13. Transfiguration.

MON, Dec. 29.—Ex. xxiv: 30-35. A Shining Face.

TUES, Dec. 31.—John xli: 20-28. Through Death.

WED, Jan. 1.—Col. i: 9-23. Pre-minent in Glory.

THURS, Jan. 2.—John i: 9-18. From Light to Light.

FRI, Jan. 3.—Col. i: 24-29. Hope of Glory.

SAT, Jan. 4.—II Cor. xli: 12-18. Transformed by Beholding.

circumstances and put them to work; whose powers are like the horses of the fire station, ready to spring to the place, let the harness drop down about them, and be off, at an instant's call. The "just so" type of worker wastes years of his time, that the disciplined, ready-to-harness worker utilizes. It is well to have everything at its best when it can; but it is better to be at our best when everything about us seems to be at its worst.

THE LOCAL OFFICER.

His Privileges and Possibilities.

Who has a great big D to fight, And needs to keep his armour bright.

And everlastingly "at night?" The Local!

Who can a grand example be, And make men wish, when him they see,

That they, through Grace, were such as he. The Local!

Who, good, can yet be better still, And—working out The General's will—

God's purpose for him all fulfil? The Local!

ONLY A GLIMPSE!

Chief of the Staff's Delightful Reminiscences.

No more beautiful recollection of the tenderness of The Army's Found-ness yet appeared than that of Howard (the Chief of the Staff),

Howard (the Chief of the Staff), and hearing that The General, before whom and himself there was ever a particularly strong attachment, was in Basle (Switzerland), he hastened to the Commissioner's office, and the Commissioner relates:

"As The General was just commencing his reading, we stood outside to listen. I managed to get a crevice through which I could obtain a glance at the Leader I loved so well and so dearly. These workers whose output of large volume and high quality supplies them with the atmosphere upon which they work under any and every condition. So it becomes true that the measure of one's efficiency is largely his ability to do good work under disadvantageous circumstances. The man who cannot work under such difficulties is putting an enormous limitation upon his output. His life is not going to be nearly as much as the man's who can marshal his his powers at any time and under any

HEART-TO-HEART TALKS.

(By Mrs. Blanche Johnston.)

This week we will "set a little child in the midst" and learn a sweet lesson of faith from one little innocent and perhaps gather a thought from the innocent confidence and happiness from another:

A contemporary says: "When a team ran away with a load of wood, on which was an eight-year-old child, the little fellow escaped unharmed, although the horses ran down a steep hill, his little handkerchief was torn, and he was asked him if he was afraid."

"No," said he. "Well, what did my draw me out of a crowded audience with the words, 'Come and listen to the altar.'—Social Gazette.

WATCH NIGHT.

Reflections of a Year.

The "Old Year" is dying now. And hearts grow hushed to the coming fest.

Of the new dawn that they are full of tears, With awe and solemn vow.

Gone are the days of "might have been," Of laughter light, and love, that mocks at fears,

Of grey-robed sorrow, with her train of tears, And joy with eyes serene.

We leave the failure and the foe, The lack of faith, the dreamer deeds un wrought,

The bitter word, the unillumined thought, The ill we would forget.

Lover of souls, do Thou forgive, The sin and wrong that made Thee vain and blind, Mete us a fuller measure of Thy grace, And teach us how to live.

In Thy Pavilion there is Peace, And rest beneath the shadow of Thy wing;

Be attitude to our cry, and solace bring, And bid our dolor cease.

Be Thou our Tower, our Shield, our Light! Relume our souls, until life's gloom is o'er,

When Thou wilt pilot us to that fair Shore Where there shall be no night.

WHERE TO TAKE IT.

Do you bear a secret burden? Are you weary in the fight?

Are you heavy in your address? Is your sky as black as night?

Have you had a talk with Jesus? Have you told Him all your sorrows?

Have you told Him all your sorrows? For He marks your every tear.

Not one sign that fails unheeded, Not a struggle but He knows; All your bitter disappointments, All your heart-aches, all your woes.

Bring your wounded heart to Jesus, Tell Him that you'll still believe! Till you'll see your prayers are answered, Full assurance you'll receive.

—Chas. W. McGee, Moore Jav.

Are you sanctified? No uncertain answer will do. Say yes or no.

"Little boy do!" "I prayed to God and hung on like a beaver."

This combination of faith and works brought a signal deliverance, as it always will when the object is a righteous one.

A SWEEZER CONTAGION.

"Everybody smiled at me. They were all nice people that we met out walking," delightedly reported the boy who had just returned from the park.

"Bliss the child, it was her own sweet little smile, ready for everybody, that made them all smile back."

Colonel George Mitchell in Toronto

THE INTERNATIONAL STAFF BANDMASTER CONDUCTS MEETINGS AT THREE CITY CORPS, AND TAKES THE BATON AT LISGAR STREET AND RIVERDALE.

THREE of Toronto's largest Corps were privileged to have our latest national visitor, Colonel George Mitchell, at their meeting on Sunday last. Although the Colonel was unaccompanied and unannounced, the meetings were attended by large crowds, and the presence of such a distinguished visitor was an opportunity for receiving light and blessing of which every Canadian Bandman and Bandmaster more especially, of course—took full advantage.

In the morning the Colonel led the Holmes Meeting at Riverdale, first of all attending the open-air meeting at which there was a full muster of Bandmen.

On Sunday afternoon, at the close of the meeting at Lisgar Street, Colonel Mitchell, in company with Adj. Hanagan, took tea with the Temple Bandmen, and afterwards gave them an impromptu address.

The Colonel received a rousing welcome, he always does when he visits Canada, and especially when he gets among Bandmen. Like their comrades in the Old Land, the Temple Bandmen feel highly honored when the International Staff Bandmaster can visit them.

But the Colonel's address was a practical exposition of the principles of Bandmanship. Would that it could be reproduced in full and sent in pamphlet form to every Bandman the world over!

"He seemed to understand our needs so well," said one Bandman, "that he always does when he visits Canada, and especially when he gets among Bandmen. Like their comrades in the Old Land, the Temple Bandmen feel highly honored when the International Staff Bandmaster can visit them."

It was a taste of the Siege of London which our visitor gave us and we enjoyed it.

Congregational singing took the place of some of the usual items of a business meeting, and was an appreciated change. Then the Colonel gave a masterly address on "Obedience." How clearly he defined the path of safety and the path of danger! The light of Heaven shone into the hearts of many disobedient ones, and as the meeting closed, six persons in the audience rose to reconsecrate themselves to God.

After the meeting the Colonel, at the urgent request of Bandmaster Martin, took the baton and gave the Bandmen a "run over" in one of the latest and most difficult pieces—six persons in the audience rose to reconsecrate themselves to God.

In the afternoon the Colonel went to Lisgar Street and led a free-and-easy meeting. Adjutant Hanagan, the Territorial Staff Bandmaster accompanied the Colonel and during the meeting gave a short address. To the intense delight of the Bandmen, the Colonel stepped up to the Bandmaster's platform when the time came, and came round, and led them in the "Soldiers of Christ" march. It was a thrilling moment for both Bandmen and audience.

The Colonel closed the meeting with a short but most impressive address. At night, when the Colonel visited the Temple, the auditorium and gallery were filled, and but for the intense cold which reigned outside, the people at home, the building would have been crowded. Without the least sign of form or ceremony, the Colonel plunged right into the business of the moment, leading the congregation in some magnificent choruses, and then, as if by magic, the Throne of Grace on behalf of the meeting. The singing of the Songsters and the playing of the Band, under the leadership of Adjutant Hanagan, were as one man.

At night, when the Colonel visited the Temple, the auditorium and gallery were filled, and but for the intense cold which reigned outside, the people at home, the building would have been crowded. Without the least sign of form or ceremony, the Colonel plunged right into the business of the moment, leading the congregation in some magnificent choruses, and then, as if by magic, the Throne of Grace on behalf of the meeting. The singing of the Songsters and the playing of the Band, under the leadership of Adjutant Hanagan, were as one man.

At night, when the Colonel visited the Temple, the auditorium and gallery were filled, and but for the intense cold which reigned outside, the people at home, the building would have been crowded. Without the least sign of form or ceremony, the Colonel plunged right into the business of the moment, leading the congregation in some magnificent choruses, and then, as if by magic, the Throne of Grace on behalf of the meeting. The singing of the Songsters and the playing of the Band, under the leadership of Adjutant Hanagan, were as one man.

At night, when the Colonel visited the Temple, the auditorium and gallery were filled, and but for the intense cold which reigned outside, the people at home, the building would have been crowded. Without the least sign of form or ceremony, the Colonel plunged right into the business of the moment, leading the congregation in some magnificent choruses, and then, as if by magic, the Throne of Grace on behalf of the meeting. The singing of the Songsters and the playing of the Band, under the leadership of Adjutant Hanagan, were as one man.

At night, when the Colonel visited the Temple, the auditorium and gallery were filled, and but for the intense cold which reigned outside, the people at home, the building would have been crowded. Without the least sign of form or ceremony, the Colonel plunged right into the business of the moment, leading the congregation in some magnificent choruses, and then, as if by magic, the Throne of Grace on behalf of the meeting. The singing of the Songsters and the playing of the Band, under the leadership of Adjutant Hanagan, were as one man.

At night, when the Colonel visited the Temple, the auditorium and gallery were filled, and but for the intense cold which reigned outside, the people at home, the building would have been crowded. Without the least sign of form or ceremony, the Colonel plunged right into the business of the moment, leading the congregation in some magnificent choruses, and then, as if by magic, the Throne of Grace on behalf of the meeting. The singing of the Songsters and the playing of the Band, under the leadership of Adjutant Hanagan, were as one man.

At night, when the Colonel visited the Temple, the auditorium and gallery were filled, and but for the intense cold which reigned outside, the people at home, the building would have been crowded. Without the least sign of form or ceremony, the Colonel plunged right into the business of the moment, leading the congregation in some magnificent choruses, and then, as if by magic, the Throne of Grace on behalf of the meeting. The singing of the Songsters and the playing of the Band, under the leadership of Adjutant Hanagan, were as one man.

At night, when the Colonel visited the Temple, the auditorium and gallery were filled, and but for the intense cold which reigned outside, the people at home, the building would have been crowded. Without the least sign of form or ceremony, the Colonel plunged right into the business of the moment, leading the congregation in some magnificent choruses, and then, as if by magic, the Throne of Grace on behalf of the meeting. The singing of the Songsters and the playing of the Band, under the leadership of Adjutant Hanagan, were as one man.

At night, when the Colonel visited the Temple, the auditorium and gallery were filled, and but for the intense cold which reigned outside, the people at home, the building would have been crowded. Without the least sign of form or ceremony, the Colonel plunged right into the business of the moment, leading the congregation in some magnificent choruses, and then, as if by magic, the Throne of Grace on behalf of the meeting. The singing of the Songsters and the playing of the Band, under the leadership of Adjutant Hanagan, were as one man.

At night, when the Colonel visited the Temple, the auditorium and gallery were filled, and but for the intense cold which reigned outside, the people at home, the building would have been crowded. Without the least sign of form or ceremony, the Colonel plunged right into the business of the moment, leading the congregation in some magnificent choruses, and then, as if by magic, the Throne of Grace on behalf of the meeting. The singing of the Songsters and the playing of the Band, under the leadership of Adjutant Hanagan, were as one man.

At night, when the Colonel visited the Temple, the auditorium and gallery were filled, and but for the intense cold which reigned outside, the people at home, the building would have been crowded. Without the least sign of form or ceremony, the Colonel plunged right into the business of the moment, leading the congregation in some magnificent choruses, and then, as if by magic, the Throne of Grace on behalf of the meeting. The singing of the Songsters and the playing of the Band, under the leadership of Adjutant Hanagan, were as one man.

At night, when the Colonel visited the Temple, the auditorium and gallery were filled, and but for the intense cold which reigned outside, the people at home, the building would have been crowded. Without the least sign of form or ceremony, the Colonel plunged right into the business of the moment, leading the congregation in some magnificent choruses, and then, as if by magic, the Throne of Grace on behalf of the meeting. The singing of the Songsters and the playing of the Band, under the leadership of Adjutant Hanagan, were as one man.

At night, when the Colonel visited the Temple, the auditorium and gallery were filled, and but for the intense cold which reigned outside, the people at home, the building would have been crowded. Without the least sign of form or ceremony, the Colonel plunged right into the business of the moment, leading the congregation in some magnificent choruses, and then, as if by magic, the Throne of Grace on behalf of the meeting. The singing of the Songsters and the playing of the Band, under the leadership of Adjutant Hanagan, were as one man.

At night, when the Colonel visited the Temple, the auditorium and gallery were filled, and but for the intense cold which reigned outside, the people at home, the building would have been crowded. Without the least sign of form or ceremony, the Colonel plunged right into the business of the moment, leading the congregation in some magnificent choruses, and then, as if by magic, the Throne of Grace on behalf of the meeting. The singing of the Songsters and the playing of the Band, under the leadership of Adjutant Hanagan, were as one man.

At night, when the Colonel visited the Temple, the auditorium and gallery were filled, and but for the intense cold which reigned outside, the people at home, the building would have been crowded. Without the least sign of form or ceremony, the Colonel plunged right into the business of the moment, leading the congregation in some magnificent choruses, and then, as if by magic, the Throne of Grace on behalf of the meeting. The singing of the Songsters and the playing of the Band, under the leadership of Adjutant Hanagan, were as one man.

At night, when the Colonel visited the Temple, the auditorium and gallery were filled, and but for the intense cold which reigned outside, the people at home, the building would have been crowded. Without the least sign of form or ceremony, the Colonel plunged right into the business of the moment, leading the congregation in some magnificent choruses, and then, as if by magic, the Throne of Grace on behalf of the meeting. The singing of the Songsters and the playing of the Band, under the leadership of Adjutant Hanagan, were as one man.

At night, when the Colonel visited the Temple, the auditorium and gallery were filled, and but for the intense cold which reigned outside, the people at home, the building would have been crowded. Without the least sign of form or ceremony, the Colonel plunged right into the business of the moment, leading the congregation in some magnificent choruses, and then, as if by magic, the Throne of Grace on behalf of the meeting. The singing of the Songsters and the playing of the Band, under the leadership of Adjutant Hanagan, were as one man.

At night, when the Colonel visited the Temple, the auditorium and gallery were filled, and but for the intense cold which reigned outside, the people at home, the building would have been crowded. Without the least sign of form or ceremony, the Colonel plunged right into the business of the moment, leading the congregation in some magnificent choruses, and then, as if by magic, the Throne of Grace on behalf of the meeting. The singing of the Songsters and the playing of the Band, under the leadership of Adjutant Hanagan, were as one man.

At night, when the Colonel visited the Temple, the auditorium and gallery were filled, and but for the intense cold which reigned outside, the people at home, the building would have been crowded. Without the least sign of form or ceremony, the Colonel plunged right into the business of the moment, leading the congregation in some magnificent choruses, and then, as if by magic, the Throne of Grace on behalf of the meeting. The singing of the Songsters and the playing of the Band, under the leadership of Adjutant Hanagan, were as one man.

At night, when the Colonel visited the Temple, the auditorium and gallery were filled, and but for the intense cold which reigned outside, the people at home, the building would have been crowded. Without the least sign of form or ceremony, the Colonel plunged right into the business of the moment, leading the congregation in some magnificent choruses, and then, as if by magic, the Throne of Grace on behalf of the meeting. The singing of the Songsters and the playing of the Band, under the leadership of Adjutant Hanagan, were as one man.

At night, when the Colonel visited the Temple, the auditorium and gallery were filled, and but for the intense cold which reigned outside, the people at home, the building would have been crowded. Without the least sign of form or ceremony, the Colonel plunged right into the business of the moment, leading the congregation in some magnificent choruses, and then, as if by magic, the Throne of Grace on behalf of the meeting. The singing of the Songsters and the playing of the Band, under the leadership of Adjutant Hanagan, were as one man.

and after a determined fight across the park, including three young girls, met at the mercy-seat.

It was a heavy day for the Colonel, but he's used to hard work. And he says the day was a good one. We agree.

"THE THINGS THAT COUNT."

Being the Substance of an Address by Colonel Mitchell to the Temple Bandmen on Sunday Afternoon.

On Sunday afternoon, at the close of the meeting at Lisgar Street, Colonel Mitchell, in company with Adj. Hanagan, took tea with the Temple Bandmen, and afterwards gave them an impromptu address.

The Colonel received a rousing welcome, he always does when he visits Canada, and especially when he gets among Bandmen. Like their comrades in the Old Land, the Temple Bandmen feel highly honored when the International Staff Bandmaster can visit them.

But the Colonel's address was a practical exposition of the principles of Bandmanship. Would that it could be reproduced in full and sent in pamphlet form to every Bandman the world over!

"He seemed to understand our needs so well," said one Bandman, "that he always does when he visits Canada, and especially when he gets among Bandmen. Like their comrades in the Old Land, the Temple Bandmen feel highly honored when the International Staff Bandmaster can visit them."

It was a taste of the Siege of London which our visitor gave us and we enjoyed it.

Congregational singing took the place of some of the usual items of a business meeting, and was an appreciated change. Then the Colonel gave a masterly address on "Obedience." How clearly he defined the path of safety and the path of danger! The light of Heaven shone into the hearts of many disobedient ones, and as the meeting closed, six persons in the audience rose to reconsecrate themselves to God.

After the meeting the Colonel, at the urgent request of Bandmaster Martin, took the baton and gave the Bandmen a "run over" in one of the latest and most difficult pieces—six persons in the audience rose to reconsecrate themselves to God.

In the afternoon the Colonel went to Lisgar Street and led a free-and-easy meeting. Adjutant Hanagan, the Territorial Staff Bandmaster accompanied the Colonel and during the meeting gave a short address. To the intense delight of the Bandmen, the Colonel stepped up to the Bandmaster's platform when the time came, and came round, and led them in the "Soldiers of Christ" march. It was a thrilling moment for both Bandmen and audience.

The Colonel closed the meeting with a short but most impressive address. At night, when the Colonel visited the Temple, the auditorium and gallery were filled, and but for the intense cold which reigned outside, the people at home, the building would have been crowded. Without the least sign of form or ceremony, the Colonel plunged right into the business of the moment, leading the congregation in some magnificent choruses, and then, as if by magic, the Throne of Grace on behalf of the meeting. The singing of the Songsters and the playing of the Band, under the leadership of Adjutant Hanagan, were as one man.

At night, when the Colonel visited the Temple, the auditorium and gallery were filled, and but for the intense cold which reigned outside, the people at home, the building would have been crowded. Without the least sign of form or ceremony, the Colonel plunged right into the business of the moment, leading the congregation in some magnificent choruses, and then, as if by magic, the Throne of Grace on behalf of the meeting. The singing of the Songsters and the playing of the Band, under the leadership of Adjutant Hanagan, were as one man.

At night, when the Colonel visited the Temple, the auditorium and gallery were filled, and but for the intense cold which reigned outside, the people at home, the building would have been crowded. Without the least sign of form or ceremony, the Colonel plunged right into the business of the moment, leading the congregation in some magnificent choruses, and then, as if by magic, the Throne of Grace on behalf of the meeting. The singing of the Songsters and the playing of the Band, under the leadership of Adjutant Hanagan, were as one man.

At night, when the Colonel visited the Temple, the auditorium and gallery were filled, and but for the intense cold which reigned outside, the people at home, the building would have been crowded. Without the least sign of form or ceremony, the Colonel plunged right into the business of the moment, leading the congregation in some magnificent choruses, and then, as if by magic, the Throne of Grace on behalf of the meeting. The singing of the Songsters and the playing of the Band, under the leadership of Adjutant Hanagan, were as one man.

At night, when the Colonel visited the Temple, the auditorium and gallery were filled, and but for the intense cold which reigned outside, the people at home, the building would have been crowded. Without the least sign of form or ceremony, the Colonel plunged right into the business of the moment, leading the congregation in some magnificent choruses, and then, as if by magic, the Throne of Grace on behalf of the meeting. The singing of the Songsters and the playing of the Band, under the leadership of Adjutant Hanagan, were as one man.

At night, when the Colonel visited the Temple, the auditorium and gallery were filled, and but for the intense cold which reigned outside, the people at home, the building would have been crowded. Without the least sign of form or ceremony, the Colonel plunged right into the business of the moment, leading the congregation in some magnificent choruses, and then, as if by magic, the Throne of Grace on behalf of the meeting. The singing of the Songsters and the playing of the Band, under the leadership of Adjutant Hanagan, were as one man.

At night, when the Colonel visited the Temple, the auditorium and gallery were filled, and but for the intense cold which reigned outside, the people at home, the building would have been crowded. Without the least sign of form or ceremony, the Colonel plunged right into the business of the moment, leading the congregation in some magnificent choruses, and then, as if by magic, the Throne of Grace on behalf of the meeting. The singing of the Songsters and the playing of the Band, under the leadership of Adjutant Hanagan, were as one man.

At night, when the Colonel visited the Temple, the auditorium and gallery were filled, and but for the intense cold which reigned outside, the people at home, the building would have been crowded. Without the least sign of form or ceremony, the Colonel plunged right into the business of the moment, leading the congregation in some magnificent choruses, and then, as if by magic, the Throne of Grace on behalf of the meeting. The singing of the Songsters and the playing of the Band, under the leadership of Adjutant Hanagan, were as one man.

At night, when the Colonel visited the Temple, the auditorium and gallery were filled, and but for the intense cold which reigned outside, the people at home, the building would have been crowded. Without the least sign of form or ceremony, the Colonel plunged right into the business of the moment, leading the congregation in some magnificent choruses, and then, as if by magic, the Throne of Grace on behalf of the meeting. The singing of the Songsters and the playing of the Band, under the leadership of Adjutant Hanagan, were as one man.

At night, when the Colonel visited the Temple, the auditorium and gallery were filled, and but for the intense cold which reigned outside, the people at home, the building would have been crowded. Without the least sign of form or ceremony, the Colonel plunged right into the business of the moment, leading the congregation in some magnificent choruses, and then, as if by magic, the Throne of Grace on behalf of the meeting. The singing of the Songsters and the playing of the Band, under the leadership of Adjutant Hanagan, were as one man.

At night, when the Colonel visited the Temple, the auditorium and gallery were filled, and but for the intense cold which reigned outside, the people at home, the building would have been crowded. Without the least sign of form or ceremony, the

What Army Bands are doing in Canada

A NEWSY RECORD OF THE EVENTS AND PROGRESS OF A WEEK AMONG BANDSMEN AND MUSICAL AFFAIRS.

A FINE SUGGESTION.

The following has been received from Windsor (Ont.) Bandmaster, Wendell Morrison, regarding Memorial Fund.

"Our Band boys felt most anxious to do something practical for the war fund, so it was suggested that we put forth an extra effort this Christmas serenading and donating $400 from our Band fund to this Memorial Fund, the money in the form of a stone-laying gift, the stone to be laid by a representative of the Band (the Officer or Bandmaster). We have named our suggestion on to R. H. G., who has been pleased to give us this privilege. We should like Mr. Editor to pass our suggestion to the other Bands in the Dominion. Our Bandmen are a unique opportunity to do something that will not only show our sincere appreciation for our late beloved General, but for our boys and girls who will receive their spiritual training in the new College, and will return to us in a few years in our different Corps as our leaders to bless and help us, and to work all over the country for the salvation of the nation. This will well repay us for the little extra effort we may put forth. I should like to see a score or more Bandmasters have the honor to be sent by their respective Bands to take part in this stone-laying event."

There is, certainly a splendid suggestion, and we have heartily commended it to the consideration of our Bandmasters and Officers. What do you say to it, comrades? We intend to correspond on the subject, and use the same time, space, and space in our Windsor comrades on their up-to-date suggestion, which, if nothing else, shows that they are as deeply interested in the war and demands of the war as any other person of the Corps. God bless the Windsor Band.—E.J.

Coburn Band, on Sunday afternoon, rendered very creditably the "Swing River" march, although we number only eleven Bandmen. This was our method of giving the public a variety of music. We play from 10:30 to 12:30 for two Sundays. We have a Band Book for one Sunday and one Band Book on the following Sunday, but always, of course, we have a Band Book on hand for congregational singing. On Sunday last we played twenty-seven pieces. We have four lads learning to play instruments.—Bandmaster.

From the Moose Jay Morning News: With even standing room a presentation, the first musical concert to be held in the new Salvation Army Citadel at Moose Jay was a pronounced success last evening. There were soloists, quartets, selections by the Band, and several features which provoked merited. Adjutant Haskirk gave what he styled a "Wood File Song." He entered the Hall dignified and old man. He carried a new horse and buck saw and commenced to cut wood, and between the two moved cut after cut, until the audience began to wonder when he would stop. He then gave several songs on a xylophone. One of the features of the evening were the songs of Captain McGrath, and adjutant, ever, has such a charming voice, heard in the "Wood File Song" is calling me to be an Officer. What about you? What will your answer be?

Church, gave several selections on the piano. Adjutant Haskirk also performed on a banjo and sang a solo.

The Band showed its powers in a variety of selections and marches, among them the "Crowns of Victory," "Liberty," and "Proclamation of the Old Times" (Rock No. 11, "Pilot," and "Consolation" selections.

Loud applause greeted every number in the programme, and at times (says our own Correspondent "Mac") the noise was so deafening that we believe it must have scared the Devil! Anyway, it was a festival unmarred by any sign of monotony, and the people are now making enquiries as to when the next festival is to take place. Bandmaster Delamont, we learn, has promised a musical evening every week. The selections which the Band played were the cause of much favourable comment, and the wonderful improvement which the Band has made during the last few weeks has surprised even the most sanguine. Captain McGrath's visit has been of great benefit to the Band and Corps alike.

Not very many people have heard of the Bonaville (Nfld.) S. A. Band, and those who attended a festival given by the Band on a recent Wednesday night are of the opinion that the Band is second to none on the island. Much credit is due to Bandmaster Morgan, for the programme and for the way in which he has worked to bring the Band to its present state of efficiency. The local people are very interested in the Band, Adjutant Duce, since he took charge of the Corps, has made things move in the right direction, and as the Adjutant is a valued member of the Band, it is only natural that the Band should make progress. May it continue to be so!—Visitor.

During the first week-end in the new Citadel at Stratcona (or Edmonton II), the Corps was favoured with the presence of the Edmonton Silver Band, under the baton of Captain Merritt. On Sunday afternoon the Band gave a festival of music and song, which, to some extent, showed the capabilities of the Bandmen. Major McLean, the D. C. presided.

The other meetings of the week-end were very successful. On Saturday night two souls found salvation. Ensign Robinson, of the Subscriber's Department in Calgary, who has collected much of the money for the new Citadel, led the Sunday morning holiness meeting. At night Major and Mrs. McLean, and several souls converted. The Edmonton Band (says our correspondent), rendered valuable service all day. The Bandmen are a fine lot of Salvationists, and can, in all truth, pray as well as play. A hearty welcome awaits their return.

The Guelph Band is making good progress under the leadership of Bandmaster Burnett. There are about twenty Bandmen and their spirit, as well as their music, is noticeably good. So good in fact that the City Council have decided to grant the Band $250, to help in the general funds. Captain Buntin, the C. O., informs us that over a dozen new instruments are on order at the Army's instrument factory in England, and two instruments are being presented to the Band, one by a local friend and the other by a Soldier of the Corps.

Musical meetings, in charge of two Bandmen, are now being given at Montreal IV, every two weeks. The first meetings were in the bands of Bandmen Stevens and Donnelly. Bro. J. Robb (soprano) concert of Montreal IV, was in the chair. There was a good attendance. Selections and marches by the Band, solos, duets, trios, quartets, etc., with vocal and instrumental, followed one another in a pleasing order. The young people were not left behind. "The Ocean and its Music" was sweetly sung as a duet by two girl friends, and an instrumental trio, "Spanish March" was played by the three youngest members of the Band. Both items gave the people great delight.—D.

The Brandon Citadel Band recently gave a "musical blitzard." Each item of a long programme was well applauded. A trombone duet by Bandmen Pilkington and McLaughlin is worthy of special mention. On a recent Sunday the Band paid its respects to the spirit of the Inmate, and by means of several selections and marches, endeavoured to bring some cheer to the poor unfortunate in that institution.—A.S.

Bandman Walker farewelled from Toronto I. Band on Sunday night. Our comrade, who played the Land. The Band will miss his services; in recognition of his past help, Captain Cummings, on behalf of the Bandmen, handed him a Bible before he said good-bye.

Earls Court Band is making good progress under the baton of Bandmaster Lovell. Band-Sergeant Joe Duff farwelled on Sunday for a trip to the Old Land. We have lost him, it only for a while, but gained three: Brother Bailey from Wales, who has taken up baritone; Bro. James Gregory, from Owen Sound (solo euphonium), and Bro. Miller from Wexford, who has taken up bass. We now number seventeen players, and are "attacking" the latest journals.—B. Gregory.

Petrolia Band is very much alive. Death was the first set of special musical meeting, when the Songsters, also the orchestra, made their first appearance in public. The Band played very creditably several pieces. "Experience" and "Invitation" being two of the numbers. The proceeds, which amounted to over fifty dollars, go toward the payment of three Class A silver-plated instruments which are on order. Besides the above there were duets, and a Revere Street acted as chairman.—C. A. M.

Band Sunday in Victoria, B.C. was a most profitable day. Bandmaster Cogan led all the meetings, and from knee-drill on. Various Bandmen took part in every meeting, and over again the same was repeated. Band played some of the latest journals "Active Service" "Song of Denmark" and others.—W. C. J.

A Page of Stirring Revival News

IT WILL DO YOUR SOUL GOOD TO READ THIS.

Revival reaches Regina

FORTY-FIVE AT MERCY-SAFE Twenty-seven Prisoners Also Decide for Christ.

(By wire.)
Regina, Sask., Dec. 26.—Glorious week-end at Regina with Major McLean leading on. Revival outbreak. Enthusiasm at high-water mark. Forty-five souls at Mercy-Safe for salvation. Majestic Theatre crowded to its utmost capacity. Volunteers from all parts of the building. Prison meetings thrilling with interest. Twenty-seven decisions. Soldiers dancing happy. Hal-lalujah.—Captain Cox.

LIVING SACRIFICES ON THE ALTAR

Big Break at Vancouver I.—Remarkable Penitent-form Scenes on the Night The General's Memorial Service Was Launched.

I have been a Salvationist for over 20 years, and have attended and taken part in some wonderful meetings, but I have never seen anything just like this before. I have seen as many and more at the mercy-safe, but not just like this. It all happened so spontaneously. It was the "Memorial Sunday" that is, a special appeal was being made on behalf of the fund for the erection of the General Booth Memorial Training College, and Adjutant Kendall "purposed in his heart" that people should not only give of their means but that it should be a special day of the giving of "living sacrifices" on the altar. Right from the start of the day the meetings were impressive, and one could not feel that the Spirit was quietly doing a special work. But it was the night meeting in which the actual work came. The service was opened by the singing of that fine consecration hymn, "Take My Life and Let It Be." This was followed by short current prayers, music selections, and some short definite testimonies. Then Mr. Kendall rose up and read the opening prayer which he was about to proceed with an address when unexpectedly she was led to ask the people to sing the verse:

"Oh, let me kiss Thy bleeding feet,
And bathe and wash them with my tears;

The story of Thy Love repeat
In every drooping sinner's ear.
That all may know the quickening sound.

Sing it, even I, have mercy found."

This was sung earnestly and sympathetically. Then she said: "Sing it again softly, just in a whisper." And while this was being done a young man from about the middle of the Hall rose and made his way to the front, and there knelt down and voluntarily offered himself. He was quickly followed by a young woman, then another young man. By this time it was evident a general movement was going on, and the Officers wisely decided to dispense with any further addresses for that night, and kept singing over and over again the verse and also other equally impressive verses, such as—
"See from His head. His hands, His Sorrow and love flow mingled down."—47. 6. 11

While from all over the Hall, including the platform, volunteers were making their way to the mercy-safe. There was no rush or noisy excitement. Everyone seemed subdued under a consciousness of His presence, while those who kept coming seemed to act with extreme deliberation. Now it was a Bandman from the back of the platform who perhaps felt that he did not have to wait and glow in his life he used to have. Then a mother from the centre of the Hall who felt she had allowed little form by trouble to irritate her unduly, would come to ask fresh grace. Then a Songster would come and ask that his singing might be more full of the Spirit. This time it is a young man from the very back seat who with a determined look in his face. He meant to be done with this life of indecision, and come right out on the Lord's side. But still they come. Now a sister who has felt her trouble was too sore to mention to anyone thinks she would like to whisper it in the ear of Jesus. Then hardened with years of sin, a man feels at last the melting influence of the meeting and resolves to embrace the opportunity to throw off the chains that have too long bound him, and thus they kept coming till in all there were 80 souls kneeling at the feet of Jesus, and by the time the meeting closed at 12:30 tears of joy had streamed down many faces and a quiet thrill of triumph seemed to pervade all, and for once I was unable to see one sceptical look or hear a scoffer's sneer. The Spirit had gone forth and won a glorious victory.—G. Allan.

SOULS EVERY NIGHT

Splendid Work in Progress at Simcoe—Drunkards Getting Saved—Converts Taking Good Stand.

Yet another week of victory at Simcoe. For two weeks we have had souls at the mercy-safe every night, with only one exception. Following up our last report we had four souls Monday night, last, eight on Tuesday for consecration, two on Thursday for salvation, and one on Friday, and Saturday found another poor drunkard at the mercy safe who came out on Sunday to the meetings. We have had record numbers at both open-air and inside meetings on Sunday and at night, and it is not so far from the truth to say that we are seeing more souls seeking pardon.

VICTORY AT BERLIN.

Sixteen Souls for Week-end.

(By wire.)
Berlin, Ont., Dec. 16.—Revival started here on Friday, when our soul came out. On Sunday morning one backslider and on Sunday night eight souls for salvation. Six converts for consecration. We are believing that this is the beginning of a great revival. God is very near. The doors are being opened, and well attended. Christmas will bring still greater victories.—Schneider, C. S. M.

Major Creighton visited Montreal on Monday in connection with the migration matters. The Major was informed by Brigadier Rawling that the street collectors with their pots and pans doing well, that up to last Saturday the total sum of money was fifty dollars ahead of last year's amount.

BRANTFORD'S REVIVAL.

Fifty Candidates in Four Weeks—Converts Taking Good Stand—Good crowds at Victoria Hall.
The revival spirit which has prevailed here since the arrival of Ensign and Mrs. Trickey continues. There are marvellous crowds not only on Sundays, but at every meeting. Seventy at Soldiers' meeting. Band and Songsters in full force. Holiness meetings average 100 present on Sunday morning. The special addresses are forceful and interesting. Soldiers' carriages average close to $20 per week. The memorial scheme was taken up wholeheartedly, and at the altar service last Sunday, while the Band played, Soldiers from all over the building came with their offerings. About $10 has been already personally raised by the Ensign from business men. "Brantford for Christ" is our motto.—Songster.

AN ALBERTA SETTLEMENT STIRRED

Officer on Furlough Conducted Memorial Service for Late General—Remarkable Wave of Conversion Spreads Through Country.

In a letter to Major Findlay, Officer who is on rest at Innis, Alberta, relates the following remarkable facts. He says: "We know not an Army Mission and a man only on furlough. It was on the occasion of the Memorial service I held in honour of our late General that the people seemed much moved. The following week a man was killed in the neighbourhood. A short time before he died he told his wife he was saved; that he had been praying for two weeks for God to forgive him and he knew it was done. His wife also got saved. He died the next Sunday (for I only held one meeting on Sunday and none through the week) the people were so taken hold of that nearly all were weeping. Eight or ten got saved, and since that conversion has been spreading over the country and souls are being saved in the meetings.

"One man who carried a Bible around with him for twenty years, and who had been a drunkard, and is now studying his long-neglected 'treasure.' In one home where the mother and father were got saved, the father who is a vile swearer and who runs a thrashing outfit, came home and heard of it and heard them sing and read the Bible and pray. He broke down and sobbed and cried all night. He told them to be true—that though he was a sinner, he was now a saint, and was going to Heaven. He once knew Jesus, but in the West he had forgotten Him, and was now lost in his own work and was an infidel. When he heard what was going on he was violent, calling to him all kinds of names, for going to Church, and saying that no one should ever go to Church dead or alive. He went upstairs to bed while the others were praying. Then he came down and came in and sang and praised God. When they sang 'Nearer, My God to Thee,' he could stand it no longer. He went downstairs and said to someone, 'Hardened wretch as I am, that hymn has touched my heart.' One woman testified, 'I hardly know my own home now. Where all used to be blasphemy and cursing is now prayer and praise. It is too wonderful to tell. Under conviction men are throwing away their tobacco, giving up swearing, and trying to sing hymns instead of drinking. Under conviction men seem to be deep, men and women have not been able to sleep, and in some cases scarce able to work. There has never been a revival here before, and most of those people have never been saved before.

"We are crying mightily to God almost day and night that the work may grow and increase. God grant it may. John M. Hardy, Ensign."

The wedding of Captain Harry Bevan, of Leamington, and Captain Nellie Bonthron of Wallaceburg, is announced to take place at Leamington on January 1st.

THE VISION OF A SHOULD-BE CANDIDATE.
Margery: "I see now what the Lord means me to do with my life. I see as though in a picture what He wants me to be. He is calling me to be an Officer."

Returning to The Army

THE COUNCIL FOR TORONTO BANDSMEN AND THEIR WIVES AT THE TEMPLE—COLONEL MITCHELL SPEAKS AN INSPIRING SESSION.

Army and its spirit. To you the Officers are looking in a large measure to conserve the true spirit of The Salvation Army and to keep in touch with the people to whom it is what The Army was brought into existence to do."

The Commissioner's address was given in installments, being frequently interrupted by spontaneous prayer. He got right into the hearts of the Locals from the start, and though he spoke very candidly on the subject of the Locals' sinfulness yet it was very evident that they took it as that chastening which was for their ultimate benefit. His remembrances of the days when he was a Local were very touching and hearty laugh. Incidentally he mentioned that he was one of the very first Locals in the Army. Things were so different then, and instead of being called Sergeant-Major he rejoiced in the title of Officer of Order No. 1, and instead of being a Local he wore a pig tin plate on his arm.

Other suggestions made by the Commissioner concerned the caring for the spiritual welfare of the young people and giving a word in due season to any who might be tempted to stray from the narrow in Army Bands, ever since his day as a Field Officer, where his duty was to lead the band to the place of the ceremony. They could play only three tunes: "Oh the Voice," "Saints of God" and "Soldiers Fighting," but it was the best Band on earth to our Corps. I was a member of the Corps College, our Leader said that when in charge of the Clapton College Band, on one occasion, as many as ninety-seven Bandmen as Cadets

(Continued on Page 14.)

Impressions of my

While at St. Catharines I was able to visit Niagara, and viewed it from every possible aspect. World-wide travel has not whetted my appetite for sight-seeing, but for years . . . (Continued on Page 14.)

In the course of our journey to and from

"But I suppose, General, there are some to whom you do not want to hold out hope of return?"

NOTE.

The picture in the Christmas number of the War Cry entitled "The Nursery" is the copyright of the Photographische Gesellschaft, New York. This notice should be made to the War Cry.

NOTE.
The picture in the Christmas number of the War Cry entitled "The Nursery" is the copyright of the Photographische Genell New York. This notice should be

— — — — —

NOTE.

The picture in the Christmas number of the War Cry entitled "The Nursery" is the copyright of the Photographische Gesellschaft New York. This notice should be placed and appeared underneath the picture.

NOTE.
The picture in the Christmas number of the War Cry entitled "The Nursery" is the copyright of the Photographische Gesellschaft New York. This notice should have appeared underneath the picture.

This Page tells You what the Corps Are Doing

NOTE TO CORRESPONDENTS!
The large amount of matter received in connection with the many social campaigns now on, or just concluded, the glorious revivals and awakenings, etc., together with the fact that last week there was no ordinary issue of the Cry, has made necessary the condensing of the Corps reports to the barest details. Correspondents will, we feel sure, excuse this explanation, and feel that their services are as highly appreciated as if we had been able to print their communications in full.

TWEED.

Captain Thompson and Lieutenant Maves have, far and away, the Corps has improved during their short stay. Five souls knelt at the mercy-seat, and all are able to give testimony to-day. Bro. and Sister Jones have been re-welcomed, and Captain and Mrs. Ould have been re-welcomed as our new C. O.'s.

ST. STEPHEN'S.—When persons doing well, eight-attending a regular open-air meeting. At night we had a large gathering. At night we had a large gathering. At night we had a large gathering.

EAST TORONTO.—On a recent Sunday two souls knelt at the mercy-seat. The old man, of 72 years, whose face to-day bears evidence of the change in his heart. Last Sunday the C. O.'s led the meetings, and three souls came out for sanctification in the Holy Spirit. At night two souls knelt at the mercy-seat, and found pardon.—R. G.

WOOD JAY.—On a recent Tuesday night six souls sought salvation. The first to come was a man well known to the people. Another came, a nurse who has been prayed for. At Friday night-Holiness meeting a brother surrendered; pipe and tobacco, and "bought a clean heart." Two captives on Sunday night.

The first Sunday in our new Citadel was a memorable day. In the morning, a united service was held. Two open-air brigades were in operation in the afternoon. At night the Citadel was crowded, and hundreds turned away. Little Jimmie Habkirk's song, with the consent of Captain McGrath and Mrs. Adjt. Habkirk's address, made a great impression, and the prayer meeting began. The speaker was led out by the Adjutant; then others came, one handing her to the C. O. to be welcomed to the Cross for salvation. Seven was the total.

On the following Saturday a man gave. Adjutant McGee came with us on Sunday. Platform and body of Hall crowded out at night. Seven more seekers, among them a young man whose father is a well-known of the Corps. Father and son together wept tears of joy.—Mac.

BOWMEIST, BERKUDA.—Adjutant Antin and Ena Roberts, from Brandon, M.F.S., were visitors during a recent week-end. Their services were greatly appreciated. Two backsliders returned to God.

ST. THOMAS.—Brigadier Hargrave and Adjutant Jones were here this week-end. The reader talked to the children of the Directory lesson, and in the evening a meeting one little girl

A SUMMARY OF A SPLENDID WEEK OF FIGHTING

GOD'S WORK IS BEING REVIVED IN ALL PARTS OF THE DOMINION.

knelt with several seniors at the mercies, and gave herself to God. At 2 p.m. the Brigadier took the Decision Sunday lesson, which was very helpful and instructive, and another junior volunteered for salvation in the senior meeting.

On Monday night the young people took the meeting, the Brigadier being guest speaker. An interesting programme was given, an extra item being added by Adjutant Smith. The Brigadier closed with a helpful address on the young people's work.

Two more Juniors knelt at the mercy-seat, Bro. and Sister Bul-ton two little girls were dedicated during week-end.—E. W.

SUBURBY.—Good meetings on Sunday. One man volunteered out in the afternoon, and in the night meeting seven souls knelt at the mercy-seat. On Tuesday night two more souls came forward. The Hall is open three nights a week as a reading-room, and one evening got used on one of the nights, making a total of eleven seekers for the week. It certainly has been a treat, says Capt. Champ-aigne, to see night or ten come in the open-air meeting of the Officers alone.

GALT.—On Sunday morning meeting was given by the Secretary, the Y. M. C. A. Hamilton, assisted by Mr. Hopper, Mr. Douglas and Mr. Williams. Their testimonies and singing were very much appreciated. At night three souls came forward.—W. L. Causon.

REGINA.—The comrades have said good-bye to Captain Macey. She has worked successfully with us for thirteen months. On Sunday, Nov. 17th, Bandman J. Burton said farewell. The Bandmen did not want to part with him, but at 5:15 the Band, accompanied by S. M. Peacock and Adj. Scott, marched to the Union Depot playing the "Pentecost".

A huge crowd, including a number of bricklayers with whom our comrades worked with met us on the platform. A sing and a prayer march was played, after which our beloved comrade came round to give the last farewell. As the train started to move, the Band played "God Be With You Till We Meet Again".

Through the character of our comrades, as a result of the work of the bricklayers are attending our meetings, and some are taking a step for Christ. The work of the Corps is prospering in all its branches. On Thursday, Nov. 21, we gave Lieut. Payne a hearty welcome.—W. D. Payne.

DUNNVILLE.—We have welcomed Captain Mary-Wale, whose meetings are very interesting and whose efforts are much appreciated. Our Hall is being remodelled.

A SUMMARY OF A SPLENDID WEEK OF FIGHTING

GOD'S WORK IS BEING REVIVED IN ALL PARTS OF THE DOMINION.

knelt with several seniors at the mercies, and gave herself to God. At 2 p.m. the Brigadier took the Decision Sunday lesson, which was very helpful and instructive, and another junior volunteered for salvation in the senior meeting.

On Monday night the young people took the meeting, the Brigadier being guest speaker. An interesting programme was given, an extra item being added by Adjutant Smith. The Brigadier closed with a helpful address on the young people's work.

Two more Juniors knelt at the mercy-seat, Bro. and Sister Bul-ton two little girls were dedicated during week-end.—E. W.

SUBURBY.—Good meetings on Sunday. One man volunteered out in the afternoon, and in the night meeting seven souls knelt at the mercy-seat. On Tuesday night two more souls came forward. The Hall is open three nights a week as a reading-room, and one evening got used on one of the nights, making a total of eleven seekers for the week. It certainly has been a treat, says Capt. Champ-aigne, to see night or ten come in the open-air meeting of the Officers alone.

GALT.—On Sunday morning meeting was given by the Secretary, the Y. M. C. A. Hamilton, assisted by Mr. Hopper, Mr. Douglas and Mr. Williams. Their testimonies and singing were very much appreciated. At night three souls came forward.—W. L. Causon.

REGINA.—The comrades have said good-bye to Captain Macey. She has worked successfully with us for thirteen months. On Sunday, Nov. 17th, Bandman J. Burton said farewell. The Bandmen did not want to part with him, but at 5:15 the Band, accompanied by S. M. Peacock and Adj. Scott, marched to the Union Depot playing the "Pentecost".

A huge crowd, including a number of bricklayers with whom our comrades worked with met us on the platform. A sing and a prayer march was played, after which our beloved comrade came round to give the last farewell. As the train started to move, the Band played "God Be With You Till We Meet Again".

Through the character of our comrades, as a result of the work of the bricklayers are attending our meetings, and some are taking a step for Christ. The work of the Corps is prospering in all its branches. On Thursday, Nov. 21, we gave Lieut. Payne a hearty welcome.—W. D. Payne.

DUNNVILLE.—We have welcomed Captain Mary-Wale, whose meetings are very interesting and whose efforts are much appreciated. Our Hall is being remodelled.

WEST TORONTO.

Band sergeant and Mrs. Reid and Bandman Huxford, felled in their Tuesday. Staff-Captain and Mrs. Bloss were present. The Corps Band, and Songster Brigade, and Junior halant sheets were read by different comrades, and all showing signs of progress in the right direction. The Corps had secured fifty new soldiers. Staff-Captain Bloss introduced The General's Memorial Scheme, and about 100 was soon raised.—H. Brooks.

NOBLE.

On Sunday the afternoon meeting was led by Envoy Mrs. Lightowler and Mrs. Paul. At night, after a song, a prayer meeting, and three backsliders returned to the fold.

COBOURG.

In the Sunday afternoon meeting at Cobourg, one soul surrendered for salvation, and two persons knelt for our prayers. Band and Soldiers worked nobly. Adj. and Mrs. Rock leader, and Mrs. Hodge, pushing the war.

EARLSBURGH.—Brigadier Hargrave conducted the week-end meetings at Earlsburgh, and the Corps had a very successful week. The Hall was knelt at the mercy-seat. Crowds were good. Many new faces are to be seen in the Hall nowdays. Captain Taylor, and Lieut. Hodge, pushing the war.

HAILEYBUR.—On Sunday at Haileybury three souls knelt at the mercy-seat. One had been a backslider for some time.

UXBRIDGE.—We have been visited by Staff-Captain and Mrs. Coombs. On Monday night the Staff-Captain and Mrs. Grose dressed in native costume gave a lecture on The Army's work in the East. On Tuesday afternoon our Officer, Captain Safford, conducted an enrollment of five. At night two souls knelt at the mercy-seat.

HAMILTON II.—On Wednesday, during the open-air meeting a poor heart-broken woman knelt at the drumhead. Two souls found pardon in the Hall, and on Saturday five more surrendered. On Sunday morning the Corps went to No. 3 for a special dedication service. Another seeker on Thursday, and on Sunday Adjutant and Mrs. Bloss were here. In the afternoon four uniformed sisters were enrolled. One surrendered at night.—J. T. W.

RED DEER.—While Ensign Pearce and Captain Peacock were at Councils the Soldiers led on. One soul sought salvation. On the occasion of the visit of Major and Mrs. McLean another surrendered. Sergeant P. B. Combs of Calgary was also here recently. His remarkable story made a great impression on the people.

WYCKWOOD.

The week-end meetings were led by Lieut. Colonel and Mrs. Chandler, assisted by Captain Bonyngne. In the morning the daughter of Bro. and Sister Bell was dedicated. The afternoon was an old-time free-and-easy, with a good address from the Adjutant, Captain Bonyngne, and Mrs. Chandler. At night the Colonel gave a very striking address. Two souls for reconciliation.—B. S.

PETERBORO.—Envoy Hancock, from London, I., conducted the week-end meetings. On Saturday night the Envoy led the "Romance of Soul-Saving" in the early days of the Salvation Army. Sgt.-Major Colley of Montreal I. acted as Chairman. On Sunday morning thirty-two comrades gave themselves afresh to God. At night four souls got converted. On Monday night the Envoy gave part of his life story.—N. A.

Colonel Bullard

Concludes His Tour in the Hamilton Division, and Has a Good Start in the London Division. His Tour Missionary Special Arousing the People of Ontario.

On the occasion of Colonel Bullard's visit to St. Catharines, the Army Hall was packed and the people were very much taken with the edited by the Colonel's description of the Army's work in foreign countries. His description of the different manners and customs of the different peoples was very enlightening. Brigadier Adhy, who sang several solos. The chair was taken by Rev. Crawford Tate, who spoke very highly of the work of The Salvation Army.—G. W.

The visit of Colonel Bullard to Brantford will ever be remembered. On Saturday three times on Sunday and Monday night the Silver Band and Songsters were to the same side and inside, and great throngs of people attended all the services.

Bandmen and young people, and made to the Y. M. C. A. to the meeting of the Ministerial Alliance of local ministers. Mr. W. S. Brewster, M.P.P., presided at the Sunday afternoon meeting, and like an S. A. veteran, pitched into the meeting upon the great crowd twice to "Fire a volley." The Colonel pointed out our worst enemies for their part as being considered very suitable candidate for Sergeant-Majorship. A beautiful lantern was presented to the Songster Brigade by Bro. Johnson, who has led on the Songsters successfully for six years.

The Victoria Hall service and the illustrated lecture on Monday night were splendid. Brigadier Adhy and Adjutant D. J. S. and Mrs. Orlis Orlis, were present. On Thursday, three more good souls were converted. Converts are doing well and taking a brave stand.

Something of a revelation was the illustrated lecture on India, Japan, and Korea, given in the city hall last evening by Colonel Bullard. Over two views made in Japan by a special process of tinting, were presented, and the consensus of opinion of the audience was that sharper and more interesting slides had never been seen in Woodstock.

Placed by the lecturer's explanations were carried to the onlooker an adequate idea of the customs, religion, industries, military strength, and household life of the inhabitants of each of the countries. The beauty of the wonderful natural beauty of the scenery. The Hall was filled, and the Rev. R. B. Cochrane of Knox Church took the chair. The people were deeply interested in the lecture, and the people and press are aroused over the state of missionary affairs in the East. Some definite gains will almost assuredly be the result of the Colonel's visit.

The Colonel's meeting at Ingersoll was held in the Methodist Church, which had been kindly loaned for the occasion. The Rev. Mr. Christie, assistant organist, and showed his appreciation of our work by his kindly remarks in connection with our work in Ingersoll. The Rev. Mr. Christie, of Woodstock, opened the meeting with prayer. We also had with us Captains Martin, Wright, and Milton.

On Friday Colonel H. Bullard, accompanied by Major F. Morris, was at Stratford. The Chairman of the evening was Major John Brown, who filled that position in his usual Methodist Church was kindly thrown open to us, through the kindness of the Rev. Mr. Milson and his officials. The Colonel had a strong appeal for volunteers for missionary fields of labour. The lecture will not be forgotten. It was very much appreciated by the large audience. Other items of the evening were a solo by Major Morris, a vocal selection by the Band, Quartette, and a selection by the Band. We got our money's worth all right.—Jas. A. Fletcher.

The Colonel was accompanied to St. Thomas by Major Morris, who are safe in saying that no one has presented to the people of St. Thomas as the missionary work of The Army in so vivid and at the same time so interesting a manner as his visit here. The lecture on Saturday night was illustrated by light views, and was listened to by a large crowd. After the regular service on Sunday afternoon the Band and Corps marched to the Grace Methodist Church, where at 4:15 the Colonel lectured on Japan. The chair was taken by Rev. Dr. Knowles, the pastor of the church. The Colonel was dressed in Japanese costume. The lecture was very interesting, and we were not surprised when Dr. Knowles stated at the close that it was the best missionary lecture he had ever listened to. The Colonel spoke burning words of truth at night.

opened the meeting with prayer. We also had with us Captains Martin, Wright, and Milton.

On Friday Colonel H. Bullard, accompanied by Major F. Morris, was at Stratford. The Chairman of the evening was Major John Brown, who filled that position in his usual Methodist Church was kindly thrown open to us, through the kindness of the Rev. Mr. Milson and his officials. The Colonel had a strong appeal for volunteers for missionary fields of labour. The lecture will not be forgotten. It was very much appreciated by the large audience. Other items of the evening were a solo by Major Morris, a vocal selection by the Band, Quartette, and a selection by the Band. We got our money's worth all right.—Jas. A. Fletcher.

The Colonel was accompanied to St. Thomas by Major Morris, who are safe in saying that no one has presented to the people of St. Thomas as the missionary work of The Army in so vivid and at the same time so interesting a manner as his visit here. The lecture on Saturday night was illustrated by light views, and was listened to by a large crowd. After the regular service on Sunday afternoon the Band and Corps marched to the Grace Methodist Church, where at 4:15 the Colonel lectured on Japan. The chair was taken by Rev. Dr. Knowles, the pastor of the church. The Colonel was dressed in Japanese costume. The lecture was very interesting, and we were not surprised when Dr. Knowles stated at the close that it was the best missionary lecture he had ever listened to. The Colonel spoke burning words of truth at night.

On Sunday night, Dec. 16th, Colonel and Mrs. Chandler did us a surprise visit. Needless to say, the B. C.'s received a great welcome. The Hall was gorged. The Colonel gave a convincing address, and two souls knelt at the mercy-seat.

On a previous Sunday night, eight persons publicly sought salvation. Among the number were two married couples. Captain Weeks led the prayer meeting.

On a previous Sunday night, eight persons publicly sought salvation. Among the number were two married couples. Captain Weeks led the prayer meeting.

On a previous Sunday night, eight persons publicly sought salvation. Among the number were two married couples. Captain Weeks led the prayer meeting.

On a previous Sunday night, eight persons publicly sought salvation. Among the number were two married couples. Captain Weeks led the prayer meeting.

On a previous Sunday night, eight persons publicly sought salvation. Among the number were two married couples. Captain Weeks led the prayer meeting.

On a previous Sunday night, eight persons publicly sought salvation. Among the number were two married couples. Captain Weeks led the prayer meeting.

On a previous Sunday night, eight persons publicly sought salvation. Among the number were two married couples. Captain Weeks led the prayer meeting.

On a previous Sunday night, eight persons publicly sought salvation. Among the number were two married couples. Captain Weeks led the prayer meeting.

On a previous Sunday night, eight persons publicly sought salvation. Among the number were two married couples. Captain Weeks led the prayer meeting.

On a previous Sunday night, eight persons publicly sought salvation. Among the number were two married couples. Captain Weeks led the prayer meeting.

On a previous Sunday night, eight persons publicly sought salvation. Among the number were two married couples. Captain Weeks led the prayer meeting.

On a previous Sunday night, eight persons publicly sought salvation. Among the number were two married couples. Captain Weeks led the prayer meeting.

and at the close five souls knelt at the Mercy-Seat. Major Morris sang several solos during the day. The Band was out in full force all day, and under Bandmaster Vlan rendered valuable service at all the meetings.—See next page.

THE FIELD SECRETARY AND MR. PUGMIRE AT THE CAMP.

Fourteen Surrenders.—There were largely increased congregations during the day. At night the large audience was crowded in every part, and numbers were turned away.

The morning service was a time of refreshing from the presence of the Lord. Mrs. Pugmire spoke on the Life of Holiness, and this was followed by a stirring appeal by the Colonel. Several persons responded and came forward to the mercy-seat for cleansing.

In the afternoon the child of Bandsman and Mrs. McGinnis was dedicated under the Flag, after which the Colonel gave an address, "Leaves From My Diary." Mrs. Colonel Maidment was present at the night's service. She received a great welcome on rising to speak. Mrs. Pugmire followed with a searching address. The Colonel's address was like a clarion call to the men who have our surplus upon the camp forward for pardon, and thus ended a splendid Sunday's fighting.

TORONTO I.—On Sunday night, Dec. 16th, Colonel and Mrs. Chandler did us a surprise visit. Needless to say, the B. C.'s received a great welcome. The Hall was gorged. The Colonel gave a convincing address, and two souls knelt at the mercy-seat.

On a previous Sunday night, eight persons publicly sought salvation. Among the number were two married couples. Captain Weeks led the prayer meeting.

On a previous Sunday night, eight persons publicly sought salvation. Among the number were two married couples. Captain Weeks led the prayer meeting.

On a previous Sunday night, eight persons publicly sought salvation. Among the number were two married couples. Captain Weeks led the prayer meeting.

On a previous Sunday night, eight persons publicly sought salvation. Among the number were two married couples. Captain Weeks led the prayer meeting.

On a previous Sunday night, eight persons publicly sought salvation. Among the number were two married couples. Captain Weeks led the prayer meeting.

On a previous Sunday night, eight persons publicly sought salvation. Among the number were two married couples. Captain Weeks led the prayer meeting.

On a previous Sunday night, eight persons publicly sought salvation. Among the number were two married couples. Captain Weeks led the prayer meeting.

On a previous Sunday night, eight persons publicly sought salvation. Among the number were two married couples. Captain Weeks led the prayer meeting.

On a previous Sunday night, eight persons publicly sought salvation. Among the number were two married couples. Captain Weeks led the prayer meeting.

On a previous Sunday night, eight persons publicly sought salvation. Among the number were two married couples. Captain Weeks led the prayer meeting.

On a previous Sunday night, eight persons publicly sought salvation. Among the number were two married couples. Captain Weeks led the prayer meeting.

Commissioner I.—His return to Toronto. Winnipeg, where he had been our own Commissioner for four days. Commissioner chatted with a War Cry representative for a moment. The Commissioner appeared very gratified with his visit to this city, and while there was a very satisfactory and successful completion of his work, which has been pending since his departure from the Manitoba Government for a considerable time. Briefly these are the results of his visit. While in Winnipeg the Commissioner was able to visit the J. C. Court and see it in operation. He saw and heard many of his opinion the Commissioner, in which he saw children's day, which the men in power contribute to the general judgment of the community and the Salvation Army. The implicit confidence in the Commissioner, who, of course, would have our surplus upon the camp forward for pardon, and thus ended a splendid Sunday's fighting.

On Sunday night, Dec. 16th, Colonel and Mrs. Chandler did us a surprise visit. Needless to say, the B. C.'s received a great welcome. The Hall was gorged. The Colonel gave a convincing address, and two souls knelt at the mercy-seat.

On a previous Sunday night, eight persons publicly sought salvation. Among the number were two married couples. Captain Weeks led the prayer meeting.

On a previous Sunday night, eight persons publicly sought salvation. Among the number were two married couples. Captain Weeks led the prayer meeting.

On a previous Sunday night, eight persons publicly sought salvation. Among the number were two married couples. Captain Weeks led the prayer meeting.

On a previous Sunday night, eight persons publicly sought salvation. Among the number were two married couples. Captain Weeks led the prayer meeting.

On a previous Sunday night, eight persons publicly sought salvation. Among the number were two married couples. Captain Weeks led the prayer meeting.

On a previous Sunday night, eight persons publicly sought salvation. Among the number were two married couples. Captain Weeks led the prayer meeting.

On a previous Sunday night, eight persons publicly sought salvation. Among the number were two married couples. Captain Weeks led the prayer meeting.

On a previous Sunday night, eight persons publicly sought salvation. Among the number were two married couples. Captain Weeks led the prayer meeting.

On a previous Sunday night, eight persons publicly sought salvation. Among the number were two married couples. Captain Weeks led the prayer meeting.

On a previous Sunday night, eight persons publicly sought salvation. Among the number were two married couples. Captain Weeks led the prayer meeting.

On a previous Sunday night, eight persons publicly sought salvation. Among the number were two married couples. Captain Weeks led the prayer meeting.

On a previous Sunday night, eight persons publicly sought salvation. Among the number were two married couples. Captain Weeks led the prayer meeting.

On a previous Sunday night, eight persons publicly sought salvation. Among the number were two married couples. Captain Weeks led the prayer meeting.

On a previous Sunday night, eight persons publicly sought salvation. Among the number were two married couples. Captain Weeks led the prayer meeting.

words to say to

IMPRESSIONS OF MY TOUR.

(Continued from Page 7.)
I have been looking forward to see this, one of nature's most beautiful phenomena. I had been told that at first sight it would put my imagination, but this was not the case. It realized my highest conception, and is an awe-inspiring sight. Its sublime grandeur cannot be expressed either by pen or pencil. A crowd of an enthusiastic meeting at St. Catharines finished on the day well. Adjutant Hoffman and a number of comrades across the border, and the Officers from Niagara and Welland were welcome visitors at this meeting.
My final week-end in the Division was at Brantford, and we had a very successful series of meetings. Here I was entertained by the musical family and popular and familiar at numerous Corps, Mr. Darven.

Brigadier Adee was with me for the closing meeting in the Division on the Monday night.
The spiritual results of my visit in the Division have been good, and the interest and sympathy manifested and financial results have been exceedingly gratifying. From the reports of the Officers and other sources my visits have been helpful to all, especially in quickening zeal for missionary work, because being a revelation to many of the extensive character of the Army's operations.

THE LOCALS' COUNCIL.

(Continued from Page 6.)
The importance of welcoming strangers to the meetings; the financing of Corps; the keeping of our open-air work.
The Commissioner has done us good, was the remark of the D. C. as he rose to give out the final song, and beyond doubt that was the feeling in everyone's heart.
Previous to the Council the Lord on down to the Junior Hall, for the giving up of which Major Simco and her assistants deserve the best thanks.

THE BANDSMEN'S COUNCIL.

(Continued from Page 6.)
Under his instruction, and coming right home he was glad to hear that out of the forty-one men in the Corps in the Toronto Training College, twenty-two were Bandmen.
The importance of congregational singing, the necessity of the spirit of knowing more of the Army, of giving one's whole brain and heart for the welfare of the Corps—these and other essentials for successful service as a Bandman were dealt with in a practical manner by the Commissioner, and we close we felt better Bandmen, better Salvationists, and better Christians than when we went into the Council.

The gathering was of the utmost importance and significance at this time in the history of The Army's warfare in this great province. The Commission and the coming together of such a fine body of commissioned men and women cannot but result in a more forward in the Corps they represent.

With his usual kindness and consideration the Commissioner sent a letter to several sick comrades who were unable to attend the meeting. Three souls knelt at the feet of the Commissioner, and three persons were baptized. Captain McKernan is leading

Secretary E. Simmons.

PROMOTED TO GLORY.

SECRETARY E. SIMMONS

OF WINGHAM
The Corps has sustained a great loss, the promotion to glory of Secretary Ernest Simmons. He was a Soldier to be relied upon at all times. As a Bandman he was always to be depended upon. He was out to Band practice on the Monday night, and on the following Wednesday he was seized with the disease that caused his death. On the Sunday when Colonel Puginire was conducting special services here he called with the Captain to see our comrade several times during the day, and when all hope was given up and our comrade was fast sinking, the Colonel said, "When I'm nearing Jordan's billows," and "Oh, the Waters of Jordan May Roll!" Although Ernest was very weak he tried to sing, and was heard to say, "Hallelujah! Hallelujah!" He died a triumphant death, fully resigned to the will of God. He was the eldest son of our Sergeant-Major, Mrs. Simmons, and has three brothers Bandmen of this Corps. Before dying he blessed his little five-days-old son.

The funeral on Thursday was conducted by Major Morris, Lt. D. C. assisted by Captain Puginire and Captains Ricker, Baynton, and numbers failing to gain admittance. Our own Band took part, as did the Congregational Church assisting at the former service. — G. M.

A good crowd gathered at the memorial service. Much conviction was felt. We would ask the readers' prayers on behalf of our late secretary's wife and four little children.

SERGT.-MAJOR BATEMAN

OF HESPELER
On Wednesday, Nov. 27th, death visited the Hespeles Corps, and away our beloved Sergt.-Major Bro. Henry Bateman. For the past three years our comrade has been laid aside with Consumption. Sergt.-Major Bateman first came in contact with The Army about 27 years ago, in the town of Brussels, Ont. Removing to Hespeles, he soon took himself to the local Corps, and by dint of hard work and faithfulness, he was appointed to the position of Senior Sergeant-Major. The Sunday before his death the Band and Soldiers went up to his home to cheer him with music and song. It was a touching sight to see our comrade call each soldier by name to his bedside to bid him a last farewell. When visited by Captain Bowness, the Sergeant-Major he was very happy, and was just waiting for Jesus to take him home. The funeral service at the house was conducted by Captain Bowness. Several comrades spoke of the Sergeant-Major's life. In accordance with our late comrade's request, our Captain journeyed to Brussels to inter the remains. At the memorial service on the following Sunday night six souls sought salvation.—G. A. B.

Sergt.-Major Bateman.

BRO. E. LITTLE, VICTORIA, B.C.

On Friday, Nov. 15th, we laid to rest the body of Edwin Little, who 22 years ago was dedicated to God in the Army in Victoria. He was always a most tender and affectionate son, and was heard to say, "When I'm nearing Jordan's billows," and "Oh, the Waters of Jordan May Roll!" Although Ernest was very weak he tried to sing, and was heard to say, "Hallelujah! Hallelujah!" He died a triumphant death, fully resigned to the will of God. He was the eldest son of our Sergeant-Major, Mrs. Simmons, and has three brothers Bandmen of this Corps. Before dying he blessed his little five-days-old son.

The funeral on Thursday was conducted by Major Morris, Lt. D. C. assisted by Captain Puginire and Captains Ricker, Baynton, and numbers failing to gain admittance. Our own Band took part, as did the Congregational Church assisting at the former service. — G. M.

WHAT ONE BANDMASTER

THINKS OF THE COMMISSIONER'S COUNCIL

The Bandmaster's Council, led by the Commissioner, was a time of much pleasure and profit to me. From the time we entered the council chamber till the pronouncing of the Benediction, there was not a dull moment, but a time of power and enthusiasm. The presence of Colonel Mitchell cheered every heart, and his very blessed and helpful talk made us feel that we yearned to do our very best as Salvation Army Bandmen. The Commissioner was again at his best. He brought us up to the serious side of things, and in his words of counsel made us feel more than ever our responsibilities, and we left the meeting encouraged, and ready to achieve greater victories. We are anticipating another whole day together. Such gatherings must surely prove of much blessing to the Army. Wm. A. Richards, Bandmaster, West Toronto.

We Miss You

INFORMATION URGENTLY WANTED

To Parents, Friends, and Relatives: We will search for missing persons, and if possible, assist in their return, and if necessary, assist in their burial. We will also search for missing persons, and if possible, assist in their return, and if necessary, assist in their burial. We will also search for missing persons, and if possible, assist in their return, and if necessary, assist in their burial.

1917. BLACK, Percy. Went West a year ago. Last heard of in O. & L. M. Co. on October 8, 1912, on a farm nine miles from Oshawa. He has a considerable amount of money on him when leaving and expressed his intention of going to Winnipeg, age 36 years. Height 5 ft. 6 in.; broad shoulders; wide, very wavy in front. Blue eyes; fair complexion. Steady; never quarrelsome; scar on back of left hand caused by an accident with an axe. Parents most anxious for news. One hundred dollars ($100) reward for such information as will lead to the tracing of this young man's whereabouts. See photo.

News urgently wanted. See photo.

Second Insertion.

9130. THORNEYCROFT, Arthur. William. Age 30; height 5 ft. 6 in.; dark brown hair, brown eyes, sallow complexion; married; a labourer. Last heard of three years ago, at work for Mr. P. Cottam, Ontario, Canada.

9140. JACKSON, Henry Daniel. Age 29; height 5 ft. 7 in.; brown hair, brown eyes, sallow complexion, slight scar under one eye; a saddler. Last heard of as working for Messrs. Cutchson, Cashier at Fish Lake, Ontario, Canada, via Yorkton. Missing since then.

9141. GRANT, Clarence L. Height 5 ft. 11; light hair, light blue eyes, fair complexion; married; a labourer. Last heard of at Perry's Sound, Ont., in 1907. Mother very anxious.

9157. WRETFORD, Ralph. Age 26; height 5 ft. 6 in.; dark hair, blue eyes, fair complexion; married; a labourer. Last heard of at May 15th, 1912, at the care of the P. O. at London, Ont.

9173. SAUNDERS, James. Age 37; height 5 ft. 11; brown hair, blue eyes, fair complexion, one tooth missing in front, small scar on head. Went to Canada about this year. He was a milkman in London, Eng. Was born in Norway.

8172. AASLAND, Otto. Age 30; tall, blond. Last heard of one year ago from Sault Ste. Marie, B. C.

SCRIPTURE POST CARDS

12 BEAUTIFUL PICTURES. BY HAROLD COPPING.

- PACKET A.
1. The Selling of Joseph.
  2. Noah Building His Ark.
  3. The Finding of Moses.
  4. By the Rivers of Babylon.
  5. The Call of Andrew and Peter.
  6. Jesus Blessing Little Children.
  7. Barntime.
  8. The Prodigal Son.
  9. Well of Sychar.
  10. Mary Magdalene at Sepulchre.
  11. St. Paul at the Martyrdom of Stephen.
  12. St. Paul's Escape From Damascus.

- PACKET B.
1. Rebekah at the Well.
  2. Joseph Known to His Brethren.
  3. The Braggart.
  4. Daniel in the Den of Lions.
  5. The Little Child Set in the Mill.
  6. The Walk to Emmaus.
  7. The Shepherds of Bethlehem.
  8. Martha and Mary.
  9. The Lost Piece of Silver.
  10. Peter and John at the Beautiful Gate.
  11. St. Paul at Lystra.
  12. St. Paul's apology at Jerusalem.

- PACKET C.
1. Ruth and Naomi.
  2. Samuel and Eli.
  3. David Summoned Before Samuel.
  4. Esther Standing in the Court of the King.
  5. The Sermon on the Mount.
  6. The Sower.
  7. The Pharisee and the Publican.
  8. The Ascension.
  9. The Miracles of the Loaves and Fishes.
  10. "Lazarus, Come Forth."
  11. The Messenger to Peter.
  12. St. Paul and the Philippian Jailor.

PRICE: PER PACKAGE, 20c Net.

MUSICAL DRILL BOOK

DEFT-BREATHING AND HEALTHY HOME EXERCISES

350 ORIGINAL DRAWINGS.

Part I.—Without Accessories.
Section 1.—Preliminary Instructions.Section 2.—Musical Marches.
Section 3.—Free Exercise Drills.Part II.—With Accessories.
Section 1.—Dumb-Bell Drills.Section 2.—Bar-Bell Drills.
Section 3.—Indian Club Drills.
Section 4.—Tombstone Drills.
Section 5.—Flag Drills.
Section 6.—Scarf Drills.
Section 7.—Hoop Drills.

Part III.—Spectacular.

Part IV.—Healthy Home Exercises.

Section 1.—Arms, Legs, and Body Bending.
Section 2.—The Army Physical Developer.
Section 3.—Deep Breathing.Part V.—Music.
PRICE, Postpaid, $1.00.

New Year Remembrances

During this period many perplexing questions will have to be settled, and amongst the number the question of selecting suitable New Year remembrances to our friends. Perhaps you are very busy or it may be that circumstances do not suitably lend themselves to your being able to make that particular selection that you would like to make. It is just here that we can be of service to our patrons, and would like to submit these items by way of suggestion

BIBLE AND SONG BOOK combined

A beautiful present - $1.25
With name in gold, extra - 25c

SOLDIERS' GUIDE AND SONG BOOK combined

A very useful book - $1.00
Name in gold, extra - 25c

S. A. SONG BOOKS

Small print - 25c, 50c, and 75c
Large print - 30c and 50c
Large print, yapp edges - 75c
Name in gold, extra - 25c

The Trade
Secretary
18 ALBERT STREET
TORONTO, ONT.

THREE SPECIALS

Walker's Concordance (postpaid) $1.50
Soldier's Guide - 25c, 50c, and 75c
Guernsey, B. O. B., with extra, sizes 34 to 40 - $4.50

OXFORD BIBLES

Printed on India paper, silk sewn, light and - $1.75
Name in gold, extra - 25c

HOLMAN'S TEACHERS' BIBLE

Self-pronouncing. The only Minion Teachers' Bible with absolutely the latest helps - $1.75
With name in gold, extra - 25c

SALVATION SONGS.

Tunes—"And Above the Rest," 1;
"Dear Jesus is the One," 5.
Now, in a song of grateful praise,
To my dear Lord my voice I'll raise;
With all His saints I'll join to tell—
My Jesus has done all things well.

All worlds His glorious power confess,
His wisdom all His works express;
But, oh! His love, what tongue can tell?
My Jesus has done all things well.

How sovereign, powerful and free,
Has been His love to sinful me!
He plucked me from the jaws of Hell—
My Jesus has done all things well.

Though many a fiery, flaming dart
The temple levels at my heart,
With this I all his rage repel—
My Jesus has done all things well.

2 Like the billows of an ocean,
Boundless, ceaseless, full, and free,
Comes the Spirit of my Saviour,
Grandly rolling over me.

Chorus:
Oh, it comes o'er my soul like a wave,
The power of His wonderful might;
He's taken my sins right away,
He's turned all my darkness to light.

Ah! those barriers that had hindered
I and Jesus being one!
When this wave came o'er me
sweeping,
Christ was left and they were gone.

Grandly rolling o'er the region
Where was once but pain and woe,
Are the waves of love's pure ocean,
Which in ceaseless rapture flow.

THE WAR.
Tunes—"Will You Quit the Field?"
207; Song-Book No. 610.

3 Will you quit the field?
Will you ever yield?
Never, never, never!
Will you boldly fight,
And defend the right?
Yes, forever!

Never quit the field till the foe is slain,
C. Never quit the field, Oh, never,
for, never yield;
We've quit the field till we victory
has by gain.
Never, never, never!

When the foe is near,
Will you have a fear?
Will you take your stand
With faith's sword in hand?

Will you cease to sing
Praises to your King?
Bravely every day
Will you march away?

Tunes—"Realms of the Blest," Who'll fight for the Lord everywhere,
Till we march by the river of
light,
Where the Lamb leads His hosts
free from care,
All robed in their garments of white?

Chorus:
Everywhere,
Who'll fight for the Lord everywhere.

PRELIMINARY ANNOUNCEMENT.

Special Visit of

Commander EVA BOOTH

TO TORONTO

MASSEY HALL

SUNDAY, JANUARY 19th, AFTERNOON AND NIGHT.

FULL PARTICULARS NEXT WEEK.

THE COMMISSIONER

WILL CONDUCT A UNITED
MEETING IN THE TEMPLE ONChristmas Morning at 10.30 o'clockAccompanied by COLONEL AND MRS. MAIDMENT, the T. H.
Q. Staff, Men and Women Social Staff, Training College Staff and Cadets, and Officers of the Toronto and Training College Divisions.

Opening New Citadel

PARLIAMENT ST. CORPS, SAT. AND SUN., DEC. 28 and 29.
THE COMMISSIONER will be accompanied by the Chief Secretary, Field Secretary, and others. The Staff Band will supply the music. The Staff Band Male Choir will sing.

THE COMMISSIONER

Assisted by
LT.-COL. PUGMIREand BRIG. AND MRS. ADBY,
Will Conduct

Watch-Night Service

AT HAMILTON I. DEC. 31. All the City Corps will unite.

Young People's Day

In the VICTORIA HALL, QUEEN STREET EAST,

Conducted by THE COMMISSIONER

on SUNDAY, JANUARY 5, 1913.

First Session commences at 10 a.m. Admission by ticket only.

Hamilton Young People's Day

Conducted by

THE COMMISSIONER

on SUNDAY, JANUARY 12, 1913.

Col. and Mrs. Maidment

Assisted by LIEUT.-COLONEL AND MRS. CHANDLER, and a selected Staff, will conduct the WATCH-NIGHT SERVICE at THE TEMPLE, TORONTO DEC. 31st

WATCH-NIGHT SERVICES IN TORONTO.

RIVERDALE
WEST TORONTO
TORONTO I.
DOVERCOURT
LIPWICOTT
CHESTER
LIGAR STREETBrigadier Potter.
Staff-Capt. and Mrs. McAmmond.
Major and Mrs. Creighton.
Brigadier Hargrave.
Lieut. Colonel and Mrs. Rees.
Brigadier and Mrs. Taylor.

Oh, think of the deeds everywhere, O Saviour, lead me everywhere,
Who on man's ruined nature have, Till each sin-burdened soul knows trod, Thy rest,
Of the curses that breathe on the Till the prey from the mighty we all, Thy peace,
Thy God.

Colonel Bullard

The International Representative,
Touring Canada in the interests of The Salvation Army's missionary work, will conduct special meetings at the following Corps:
Belleville, Dec. 28, 29, and 30.
Napanee, Dec. 31.
Kingston, Jan. 1.
Gananoque, Jan. 2.
Brockville, Jan. 3.
Cornwall, Jan. 4, 5, and 6.
Ottawa II, Jan. 7.
Ottawa I, Jan. 8.
Montreal I, Jan. 9.
Montreal IV, Jan. 10.
Montreal III, Jan. 11.
Montreal II, Jan. 12 and 13.

LT. COLONEL TURNER

(Accompanied by Major Miller.)
Stratford, Dec. 21 and 22.
Opening of New Citadel,
Belleville, Dec. 31.
Watch-Night Service and Hallelu-
jah wedding,
Woodstock, January 5.
Opening of New Citadel.

LT. COLONEL &amp; MRS. CHANDLER

Temple, Dec. 28 and 29.
Commissioning of Locals on Saturday.
Temple, Dec. 31.
Watch Night,
Toronto, Jan. 5.
Y. P. Day.

BRIGADIER ADBY.

Niagara Falls, Dec. 28 and 29.
Hamilton I, Dec. 31.
Hamilton II, January 2.
Brantford, Jan. 4 and 5.
Hamilton III, Jan. 7.
Paris, Jan. 8.
Hamilton I, Jan. 12.

MAJOR AND MRS. MOORE.

Riverdale, January 5.
MAJOR AND MRS. PHILLIPS.
(With a batch of Cadets.)
West Toronto, January 12.

MAJOR FRANK MORRIS.
Will conduct the Wedding of CAPTS. BEVAN & BONTHTON

at

LEAMINGTON, JANUARY 19th.

THE TERRITORIAL STAFF BAND.

Parliament St. Dec. 29.

Central Prison, January 7.

SALVATION.

Tunes—"So Near to the Kingdom!"
Lion of Judah; Hiding in Thee
(B J 9).

5 So near to the Kingdom, oh, what dost thou lack?
What is it, poor sinner, that's keeping thee back?
The Master is waiting to set thy soul free,
Oh, come to the Saviour. He's calling for thee.

Chorus:

Calling for thee, sinner, calling for thee!
Our Saviour is calling, is calling for thee!

So near in the fountain, but yet not plunged in—
So near, yet unwilling to let go your sin.

Men slip in before you, will you not come, too?
The Saviour is calling, is calling for you.

We regret to learn that Captain
Buston of the Montreal Rescue
Home has had a serious breakdown in health. Also that Captain Green of Hamilton II, has had to forgo and go on furiously on account of ill-health. Pray for these comrades.